Re: F.O.I.L. Request Dated 11/23/2015

Dear Mr. Ribeiro:

The Court is in receipt of your above-referenced F.O.I.L. request.

Initially, please be advised that, pursuant to Public Officers Law §86(3) and §92(1), the judiciary is specifically exempt from the NYS Freedom of Information Law. Moreover, the records in your case have been sealed by order of the Court. However, the court's case records are nevertheless generally open for inspection and copying by the defendant, in compliance with the Court's policy and procedure. Generally, a request for information contained in the court's records should be submitted in writing over an original signature and reference a specific case or cases and specific information.

With respect to the information you requested, please be find a Certificate of Disposition enclosed. Due to your currently incarcerated status, the Court has waived the standard $5.00 fee normally charged for same. However, should you require any other documents from your file, you will need to provide a specific list and pay the associated copying fee of $.25 per copy page.

I trust that this satisfactorily responds to your inquiry.

Very truly yours,

Forrest Strauss
Village Justice
